As relevant for the early church as they are today, God's explanations of why He tells us what to do and not to do benefit believers.

Understanding why God says or does something, helps us be compliant and obedient.

During July, continue enjoying Paul's writings to the early church answering their many questions and receiving deeper understanding of how we are to live lives conformed to the image of Christ.

Look for Scriptures containing the words "so that". Following these words is God's explanation of "why".
