God has always known the end from the beginning. This applies to all things. Consider Colossians 1: 15-20

¹⁵ The Son is the image of the invisible God, the firstborn over all creation. ¹⁶ For in him all things were created: things in heaven and on earth, visible and invisible, whether thrones or powers or rulers or authorities; all things have been created through him and for him. ¹⁷ He is before all things, and in him all things hold together. ¹⁸ And he is the head of the body, the church; he is the beginning and the firstborn from among the dead, so that in everything he might have the supremacy. ¹⁹ For God was pleased to have all his fullness dwell in him, ²⁰ and through him to reconcile to himself all things, whether things on earth or things in heaven, by making peace through his blood, shed on the cross.

As you celebrate the holiday season, be encouraged to take some time to reflect on your relationship with Jesus now and where you want to go with Him.

As you complete your reading of the New Testament, seek and embrace the truth of how much God loves you. It will give you peace and, perhaps, perspective. Know how much God is holding you in the palm of His hand. And, one day, He will welcome you in to His glorious presence.

Be at peace with Jesus Christ as your Savior. He has you, no matter what.
